

Girl Scouts of the USA Adult Recognition Girl Scouts of Central Indiana

Award Descriptions

Appreciation Pin

The appreciation pin is a square goldtone pin depicting the Girl Scout logo. It is worn on the right side of the uniform above the identification pin. If an adult has received more than one special recognition the last one received is generally the one worn on the uniform.

Honor Pin

The award pin is a green enamel pin with a goldtone trefoil design circled by a laurel wreath. It is worn on the right side of the uniform, above the identification pin. If an adult has received more than one special recognition, the last one received is generally the one worn on the uniform.

Thanks Badge

The award is a gold filled enamel disc that can be used as a pin or worn on a ribbon or chain. It is worn on the right side of the uniform, above the identification pin. If an adult has received more than one special recognition, the last one received is generally the one worn on the uniform.

Thanks Badge II

The award is similar to the Thanks I badge and has a blue band inside a gold band. It has a red stone in the center. It is worn on the right side of the uniform above the identification pin or in a similar position if the identification pin is not worn. The recipient should wear only the Thanks Badge or the Thanks Badge II at one time.

President's Award

The award is a certificate for the service unit and the service unit name and year added to a plaque displayed in the council headquarters.

Outstanding Leader

The award pin depicts a leadership torch against a yellow background. It is worn on the right side of the uniform, below the identification pin, or on either side of the Years of Service pin. If an adult has received more than one special recognition, the last one received is generally the one worn on the uniform.

Outstanding Volunteer

The award pin depicts a white chain and gold trefoil against a red background. It is worn on the right side of the uniform, below the identification pin, or on either side of the Years of Service pin. If an adult has received more than one special recognition the last one received is generally the one worn on the uniform.
